

Respiration - Stayin alive!

Respiration is a chemical reaction that breaks down glucose from food to release energy using oxygen. Remember the role – play activity for respiration, use the labels to put all the characters in their correct places on this plant cell.

Choose the words to put into the correct boxes.

Respiration reaction    carbon dioxide    glucose    energy    oxygen    water